

Course Description:

In this introductory course, students will continue with the basics of the Spanish language through reading, writing, listening, and speaking. Students will learn how to discuss school subjects, various professions, and their daily routines.

In addition to learning the language, students will also learn about the cultures of some Spanish-speaking countries. They will learn about the history, daily life, and cultural products of Venezuela and Chile.

Students will participate in discussion boards, speaking practice, a culture project, and a speaking project.

Course Overview:

This course is made up of six units. Each unit has five lessons. Lessons will present the material in many different ways to allow for increased comprehension of information. Some activities are graded by the program software, others will be graded by the instructor, and additional activities will be available for the student, but not graded. It is recommended that the course instructor be contacted for further information about course guidelines and grading policies.
